Springfield, Illinois - The 2019 Municipal Band Summer Concert Series starts June 4 and will go through August. The Municipal Band has provided free music in the parks and at community events for over 80 years. This year, in addition to playing at Douglas Park band shell and under the steel arches at Southwind Park, the band will once again participate in the City's History Comes Alive program where they will perform every Tuesday at 11:00 a.m. at the Old State Capitol. They will also perform at the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Museum on various Saturday's throughout the summer.
